Instructions For The STGS Field Camp Scholarship

The South Texas Geological Society Scholarship Fund provides scholarships to assist students with the expense to attend a summer geology field camp that is required in the pursuit of a degree in the geological sciences. These Field Camp Scholarship awards are limited to those students that are enrolled at either Trinity University or the University of Texas at San Antonio.

All applicants for the Field Camp Scholarship award should complete the two page Application for STGS 2018 Field Camp Scholarship and return it to the address listed on the application form by the April 1, 2018 deadline date.
